the Government. THE STATUTES

with the amendments thereto, and the subsequen legislation, with notes and references : judicial decisions, EDITED BY JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD.

> Volume 1, Published by BINGHAM & DOUGHTY,

INDIANAPOLIS. Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the following ecommendation of the work: STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & HORD .- Some months ago, the above named gentlemen issued proposals for pubng, in two volumes octave of some 800 pages each, al the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with annotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editorially, deserves the thanks of the profession. The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under State authority, has always been a source of great inconvenience to the Indiana Lawyer. The revision of 1852, as well as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been published without any index. Up to thistime the lawyer has constantly been under the necessity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes o our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knows how annoying and provoking this is, especially in the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs, Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs. The volume under review contains another excellence "Rats do not die on the premises." Allits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices, so that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the eader of the contents of the page. Another matter of great importance to the lawyer in this volume is a good collection of the subjects of all legislation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining city."

"They are the only infamible remedies known."

"12 years and more established in New York City." Jeffersonville and Louisville 820 r. s. over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to Used by --- the City Prisons and Station fied the provisions contained in that Revision, and even then he would often feel doubt whether he had found all Terre Hautethroughmail..... 7:00 P. M. Lafavette and Chicago 6:00 P. M. vin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject. Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have Central through mail..... 6:30 A. M. collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject of husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three acts ocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation. A still more valuable feature are the copions and accu- everywhere said by the People-Editorsrate notes contained in the volume in question. This volume includes the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virginia and statutes of Congress, and a large portion o our min need be so no longer, if they use "Cos own statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the Courts on the various provisions contained in these Constistutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the appro-priate pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate noteand references. Messrs, Gavin & Hord seem to have per-formed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have cost them much care and labor. By it they have the breath out of Rats, Mice. Roaches and greatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and have well merited his grateful approval.

In every respect the volume under review is highly reditable to the dilligence, accuracy, talents and the taste o Medina [O.] Gazette. its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatness of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation of the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which we understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice o 1852, with subsequent amendments and other statutes. Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been induced to compose and publish this little review of the book solely because he believes the editors and publishers deserve high commendation for their performance. He, therefore, deems it but just to them, without being solicited to it by any one, to publish this notice of the book, over his own proper name. DAVID McDONALD.
